Managerial-Business Skills Development for Researchers

The best investment for research managers and professionals

The Managerial-Business Skills Development for Researchers (MBSDr) program is an international, highly intensive training program designed to enhance the leadership, management, and business competencies of research managers and professionals.

The program is part of the Pacinno initiative, funded by the EU to promote innovation and technology transfer throughout the Adriatic region.

Who?

The program is open to 16 participants coming from Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Greece, Italy, Montenegro, Serbia, and Slovenia with one of the following profiles:

- researchers, who are employed by universities and other public research institutions;
- R&D managers employed in high-tech companies.

When?

The MBSDr program will be delivered in 3 very intensive 4-days modules, scheduled for December 2014, January 2015, and May 2015.

Where?

The program will take place in Slovenia, in the Vipava Valley.

Why?

The MBSDr offers a unique combination of:

- highly practical knowledge and working tools;
- international and intercultural learning environment;
- outstanding lecturers from renowned universities.

Cost?

The program is free-of-charge. Accommodation and travel expenses to attend the program are covered by the Pacinno project.
