DO YOU KNOW

WHERE ARE YOU?

A 3D topographical map of Europe showing mountain ranges, rivers, and coastlines. The map is rendered in shades of green, brown, and blue. A white outline highlights the country of Bosnia and Herzegovina, which is located in the Balkans, between the Adriatic and Black Seas. The map is set against a background of a starry night sky on the left and a bright, hazy sky on the right.

B&H is placed in the heart of Europe with a mixture of Mediterranean and continental climates (cold Winters and hot Summers).

B&H has a rich history: from Illyrian and Celtic civilizations, Slavic, kingdoms, occupation, annexions, World wars, and socialism to modern times.

DO YOU KNOW WHY SARAJEVO IS CALLED

EUROPEAN JERUSALEM?

In B&H live Bosniaks, Croats, Serbs and 17 national minorities
Albanians, Montenegrins, Czechs, Hungarians, Macedonians, Germans,
Poles, Roma, Romanians, Russians, Slovaks, Slovenes, Turks,
Italians, Ukrainians, and Jews.

An aerial photograph of Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina, showing a dense urban landscape with numerous buildings and red-tiled roofs. A prominent yellow location pin is placed over the main building of the University of Sarajevo, which features a large central dome and classical architectural elements. The city is situated along a river, with a stone wall and a road visible in the foreground.

UNIVERSITY OF SARAJEVO WAS FOUNDED IN 1949

Sarajevo was first placed on the map of academic centres in this part of Europe in 1573, with the signing of the Waqfname (Book of Endowment) by Gazi Husrev-bey. Today, the Gazi Husrev-bey's Library is the oldest institution within the University of Sarajevo.

- RESIDENCE PERMIT

- CHECK YOUR WELCOME DAY INFO PACKAGE

Confirmation of arrival

Confirmation of arrival is a document stating your status at the University of Sarajevo, namely the starting and ending date of your mobility.

It must be sent to your home university to your home coordinators (scanned by email) upon arrival or the official start of activities.

Admission

Enrolment (or admission) is required to follow courses freely, research, participate in-group studies and take exams.

Registration puts you into the university system, making it possible to prepare your transcript of records before you depart.

To register, you need to purchase the required admission documents:

1. Identification document (index)

2. Admission papers

Regulating your status

Entry of international students and staff members to Bosnia and Herzegovina is regulated by instructions and regulations of the Ministry of Security of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

As in every country in the world, Bosnia and Herzegovina has its own regulations when it come to foreign entering and exiting. As an exchange student/staff who will stay in Bosnia and Herzegovina longer than 90 days for academic/teaching purposes, you will need to regulate your residence permit. This is done in two steps:

1 White card

2 Residence permit

DURING

MOBILITY

- We expect you to spend your mobility at UNSA
(meaning: don't miss classes, tutorials, research, and other academic activities that are part of your mobility program).
- Be in contact with your host coordinators (changes, questions about modules, exams, dates).
- Be in contact with your home coordinators, especially if changes are needed regarding your mobility.
- Stay safe!

DURING

MOBILITY

- Any changes in your activities (subjects, ECTS, classes, timetable, permissions, etc.) should be discussed with the academic coordinator at the UNIT you are performing your mobility.
- If you do not know who is your academic coordinator, check it at <http://www.international.unsa.ba/eng>

Before mobility

DURING

MOBILITY

- Make photos and videos and share them with us.
- Are you a YouTuber, Vlogger, or Blogger? Let us know; let's find a way to cooperate, promote UNSA and Sarajevo and help you with your content!
- Use SCANAJEVO as a recommendation to visit different cultural and natural places in and around Sarajevo.
- Socialize and mingle with the local community.
- Make sure you try all the unique dishes from the local cuisine

DEPARTING

- Before departing, contact your host coordinator and our office to confirm the end of your mobility (and sign a confirmation of departure).
- The student who followed classes and took exams will receive a transcript of records with their results (after submitting the index to the student services).
- For students who did not take exams, but did research for their final work, a specialized form needs to be filled in (Final report) about student activities and research and signed by appointed coordinators (all explained in the Final report template).
