

16th Central and Eastern European Forum for Young Legal, Political and Social Theorists

DIVERSITIES OF LEGAL LANDSCAPES IN CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE

- Technologies
- Procedures
- Democracy
- Rule of Law
- Climate Changes

UNIVERSITY OF SARAJEVO
FACULTY OF LAW
12TH-13TH OF
SEPTEMBER 2024

Program available at:

CEE Forum 2024, Sarajevo

Venue: University of Sarajevo – Faculty of Law

Obala Kulina bana 7, 71 000 Sarajevo

Contact: ceeforum2024@gmail.com

PROGRAM

Thursday, September 12th 2024

From 08:00	Registration	Lobby
09:00 – 09:20	Welcome addresses Zinka Grbo , Dean University of Sarajevo – Faculty of Law Ministry of Science, Higher Education and Youth (TBC) Damir Banović , the Organizing Committee	Room 331
09:30 – 10:30	Keynote speaker Maja Sahadžić, University of Utrecht The Rule of Law and Technology: The Antidemocratic Conundrum	Room 331
10:30 – 11:00	Coffee break	Room 204

Session I

We suggest that each presentation takes approximately 15 minutes, followed by 10 minutes of discussion. Please note that moderators may adjust the timing at their discretion.

11:00 – 12:30	Historical Reflections and Contemporary Theories Péter Cserne, University of Aberdeen Why (not) Look Back at the 1920s Rusztem Vámbéry and Interwar Illiberalism Márton Matyasovszky-Németh, Eötvös Loránd University The Importance of Hannah Arendt's Political Philosophy in Preserving our Democratic Communities Flóra Hamecz, Eötvös Loránd University Contemporary Social Contract Theories and Diversity Moderator: Tahir Herenda	Room 331
11:00 – 12:30	Transitional Justice Krystyna Mokrzycka, Jagiellonian University Transitional Justice as a Possible New Vector of Therapeutic Jurisprudence – An Explorative Study Nizama Husetić, University of Sarajevo ICMP as an International Legal Intervention: A Case Study of Bosnia and Herzegovina Mateusz Grabarczyk, Adam Mickiewicz University Normative Model of Judicial Accountability: Transitional Justice Perspective Moderator: Laura Gheorghiu	Room 141
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch	Room 204

Session II

We suggest that each presentation takes approximately 15 minutes, followed by 10 minutes of discussion. Please note that moderators may adjust the timing at their discretion.

14:00 – 15:30	Contemporary Human Rights Challenges Christina Boger, University of Gothenburg Making Sense of Human Rights Restrictions: What We Can Learn from Civil Society Actors	Room 331
----------------------	--	----------

14:00 – 15:30	Marek Suska, University of Silesia The Legislative Body Cannot Merely Formulate Assessments: The Case of Polish Resolutions Against the So-Called 'LGBT Ideology' Allegra Grillo, Bocconi University Analyzing ECtHR Case Law on the Right to Housing: A Law and Economics Perspective Mila Đorđević, University of Belgrade Challenges of Measuring Access to Justice Moderator: Harun Išerić	Room 331
14:00 – 15:30	AI and Legal Challenges Angelika Kaczmarek, University of Genoa Automated Bank Decisions as a Double-Edged Sword Nóra Chronowski & Boldizsár Szentgáli Tóth, HUN-REN Centre for Social Sciences, Institute for Legal Studies Empirical Analysis of Constitutional Justice with New Digital Databases: Recent Experiences and Added Value from Hungary Aleksandar Kovačević, University of Belgrade The Role of Artificial Intelligence in Public Administration Reforms: A Case Study of Serbia Moderator: Eduard Fosch Villanronga	Room 141
15:30 – 16:00	Coffee break	Room 204
Session III We suggest that each presentation takes approximately 15 minutes, followed by 10 minutes of discussion. Please note that moderators may adjust the timing at their discretion.
16:00 – 18:00	Explorations in Legal Philosophy Svan Relac, University of Zagreb Criteria for Solving Antinomies – Systematic Literature Review Áron Fábíán, Eötvös Loránd University The Normativity of Law in an Age of Global Legal Pluralism	Room 331

16:00 – 18:00	Sava Vojnović, University of Belgrade Contemporary Legal Philosophy – No Room for Value Claims? Monika Zalewska, University of Lodz Hans Kelsen, the Ideology-Free Theory of Law and the Theory of Democracy Moderator: Damir Banović	Room 331
16:00 – 17:30	Public Discourse in Law: Language, Politics, and Social Media Marek Uszyński, Jagiellonian University Between Language and Politics: A New Approach to Figleaves Aleksandra Miciak, Jagiellonian University Limiting Public Debate in Europe vs Anti-SLAPP Laws. An Analysis on the Example of Poland Agata Dąbrowska, University of Lodz Public Discourse Concerning the Law – The Social Media Sphere Moderator: Nasir Muftić	Room 141

Friday, September 13th 2024

From 08:00	Registration	Lobby
09:00 – 10:00	Keynote speaker Eduard Fosch Villaronga, Leiden University Science for Robot Policies	Room 331
Session I We suggest that each presentation takes approximately 15 minutes, followed by 10 minutes of discussion. Please note that moderators may adjust the timing at their discretion.
10:00 – 11:30	Courts in Action Laura Gheorghiu, University of Graz Constitutional Courts as Guardians of Polis or as Political Tools?	Room 331

10:00 – 11:30	Marin Keršić, University of Split Judicial Balancing of Rights: Some Problematic Aspects Mario Armando Sandoval Islas, University of Genoa The Retroactive Application of rationes decidendi Damir Banović, University of Sarajevo Keeping Democracy from Populism: The Role of the Judiciary in Protecting the Democratic Values, Principles and Rights Moderator: Lejla Ramić	Room 331
10:00 – 11:30	Illiberal Democracies and Marginalized Issues: A CEE Perspective Katalin Lenke Zsille, Eötvös Loránd University Examining the Relationship Between People with Disabilities and the Law Almina Selimbašić, University of Sarajevo Legal Limbo of Minority Rights in Bosnia and Herzegovina Marek Malinowski, Jagiellonian University The Concept of Institutional (Dis)Trust in the Context of Constitutional Crises in Central and Eastern Europe: Measurement, Role, Controversies Piotr Zaleski, Jagiellonian University Restitution and the Social Change – Some Lessons from the ‘Restoration’ of the Rule of Law in Poland Moderator: Maja Sahadžić	Room 141
11:30 – 12:00	Coffee break	Room 204
Session II We suggest that each presentation takes approximately 15 minutes, followed by 10 minutes of discussion. Please note that moderators may adjust the timing at their discretion.
12:00 – 13:30	AI and Legal Challenges Jakub Figura, Jagiellonian University Challenges of Algorithmic Judgement: From Hallucinations to Predictive Justice Renátó Vági, Eötvös Loránd University Beyond Risk: Enabling Positive Social Impacts through AI Regulation	Room 331

12:00 – 13:30	Nasir Muftić, University of Sarajevo Navigating the Turbulent Path of Artificial Intelligence Liability Regulation in the European Union Moderator: Eduard Fosch Villaronga	Room 331
13:30 – 15:00	Lunch	Room 204
Session III We suggest that each presentation takes approximately 15 minutes, followed by 10 minutes of discussion. Please note that moderators may adjust the timing at their discretion.
15:00 – 16:30	Socio-Legal Perspectives: Diversity, Critique and Social Organization Samir Forić, University of Sarajevo Landscape of Diversity and Disparity: The Western Balkans Through the Lens of the Socio-Legal Trajectory Kamil Zyzik, Jagiellonian University Solidarity, Hierarchy and Exchange. Conflicting Patterns of Social Organization in Context of Labour Law Moderator: Sava Vojnović	Room 331
15:00 – 16:30	Constitutionalism, Judiciary and Modern Interventionism Nóra Bán-Forgács, HUN-REN Centre for Social Sciences, Institute for Legal Studies Constitutional Identity as an 'Actor' of Judicial Accountability Davor Petrić, University of Zagreb Internal Judicial Independence in the European Union: A Curious Case from Croatia Alenka Antloga, Research Group Discrimination in Post-Conflict Constitutions, International Association of Constitutional Law The International Legal Intervention in Bosnia and Herzegovina through the Powers of the High Representative as a Post-Conflict Mechanism of Power Sharing Moderator: Svan Relac	Room 141
16:30 – 17:00	Closing ceremony	Room 331